ABOUT THE STUDIO

Design with purpose.

I'm Sabrina, the designer behind Dambroski Studio. I create visual identities and social media content that bring each brand's personality to life. My approach combines thoughtful design, clear communication, and attention to detail.

DAMBROSKI STUDIO — BRAND IDENTITY

MORA

Skincare / Brand Concept

A calm, contemporary identity built around everyday skincare rituals. Soft sage tones, clean typography, and a minimal botanical symbol create a cohesive visual language across packaging and social media.

VELVET ROAST

One cup. A changing flavor.

An educational carousel about how temperature shapes the coffee-tasting experience.

VELVET ROAST

Why does your coffee taste different as it cools?

Same cup.
A different experience.

VELVET ROAST

Temperature changes perception.

How hot your coffee is can change how you experience its aroma, taste and mouthfeel.

So the next sip may feel different.

HOT
More aroma and brightness

WARM
More balance and sweetness

COOL
Smoother, rounder taste

02 / 04

VELVET ROAST

The flavor balance can shift.

As the cup cools, you may notice some qualities more clearly than others. The effect varies from coffee to coffee.

03 / 04

VELVET ROAST

Try it with your next cup.

1. Take a sip when comfortably warm.
2. Let it cool a little.
3. Taste again. What changed?

One coffee.
Two tasting moments.

AMBER CACAO

The science of a slow bite.

A four-slide story revealing why chocolate melts in your mouth.

AMBER CACAO

Why does chocolate melt in your mouth?

The secret is in the cocoa butter.

Swipe to discover →

01 / 04

AMBER CACAO

It starts with cocoa butter.

This natural fat from cacao beans helps give chocolate its smooth texture.

And it responds to warmth.

02 / 04

AMBER CACAO

Your warmth does the rest.

Cocoa butter melts near body temperature. As chocolate warms in your mouth, it gradually softens.

03 / 04

Try a slower bite.

1. Take a small piece.
2. Let it melt on your tongue.
3. Notice the texture and aroma.

A little patience.
A fuller tasting experience.
